

Sinclair Broadcast Group's plan to air a smear attack against a presidential candidate two weeks before the election is a great disservice to the public and a danger to our democracy. An extremely partisan program like "Stolen Honor" has no place on our public airwaves.

I urge the FCC to strengthen media ownership rules and address the dangers of media consolidation as exemplified by the Sinclair Group.